GOVERNOR HILL'S TRIUMPH.

It is this outlook which makes Democrats in Washington rejoice so heartily that Governor Hill has, by his close attention to the party's interests, prevented the Republicans from stealing the Legislature, and thereby defeat the just reapportionment that will follow Democratic control. With scarcely an exception the Democrats who are now in Washington are sounding loudly the praises of Governor Hill, and when he comes next week to take his seat in the Senate, it is the general belief that he will be given a thorough and hearty Democratic welcome such as few men have ever received. The ablest men of the party now in the city are apparently harmonious in declaring that Governor Hill knew exactly what he was doing when he decided to hold on at Albany to the last day, and see that his party was not cheated out of its rights. assured in New York, Michigan, Indiana, and Wisconsin, where there are Democratic legislatures, the party not only has magnificent prospects next year, but things are exceedingly blue for the advocates of the force bill, who expect to see that question revived in all its hideous aspects should the Republicans ever usain secure control of both branches of Congress and retain the presidency. The Democrats here who have been heard to express opinions see in Governor Hill's service to his party the most complete block to the revival of the force bill in Congress, and it is thought that in the ALBANY, N. Y., December 3L.—The fare-well banquet tendered Governor David B. Hill by the Democratic State officers to-night at the Kenmore Hotel was the occasion of bringing together fliany prominent Democratic politicians of this State. Covers were laid for 153 quests, all of whom were presents. The tables were elaborately set of with flowers. At the top of the title-page of the mem were the words, "Farewell, Governor," and at the bottom of the page were the words, "All hall. United States Senator." At the head of the table sat Secretary-of-State Frank Rice, with Governor hill on his right and Governor-elect Flower on his left, the incoming and out-going State officers being seated each side of the tiovernors. Letters of regret were received from ex-President Grover Cleveland, and others. Secretary Rice acted as toust-master, and at the conclusion of dinner regular toasts were responded to by David B. Hill as Governor-elect. Mr. Flower spoke briefly, paying a glowing tribute to Governor Hill, pronouncing him the greatest leader the Democracy has ever known.
